

Unit Six

Rhymes

Lesson 4

Birds Galore

One watchful owl,
In the fork of a tree.
Two snow-white doves,
Flying high and free.
Three skinny storks,
Preening in the sun.
Four ostrich chicks,
Exploring on the run.
Five noisy gulls,
Squawking on the shore.
Along comes another,
Then more and more and more!

r-controlled /or/ vowel sound:
or, ore and our

corn

snore

four

Unit Six: Lesson 4

Practice sentences

“I would have pork with my corn,
if I could,” said Norm.

I have had four bits of corn,
so should I have more?

The horn made a short beep
when the boat got to port.

